

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Effective across all services, downloads, and content on www.reilinjoey.com

These terms apply not only to digital products but to anything on my website—including freebies, downloads, course content, and behind-the-scenes material.

1. Ownership & Copyright

Everything I release on www.reilinjoey.com is protected by copyright. Whether it's a LUT, tutorial, or PDF guide—I retain full ownership. You're getting a license to use the content, not ownership of the content itself.

2. What You Can & Can't Do

You can:

- Use anything you download for personal or freelance use
- Learn from my materials and apply them to your own work

You can't:

- Reupload or resell anything
- Claim my material as your own
- Share private download links with others
- Rip content from the Video Episodes or Academy content and repackage it

If you want to use something commercially or in a broader educational or commercial context, just send me an email and I'll happily chat through licensing options.

3. Content Accuracy & Use

Everything I share (especially in Video Episodes and guides) is based on my personal workflow and what I've tested in real-world client projects. That said, results can vary depending on your footage, camera settings, or editing platform.

Always double-check your color management settings and LUT application before assuming something "doesn't work."

4. Accountability & Liability

I do my best to make everything accurate, functional, and well-supported. But I can't be held liable for how things behave on your system, or for any unintended results. You use my resources at your own discretion.

5. Questions & Contact

For any support, licensing, or collaboration inquiries, email: [orders@reilinfoey.com]

Most common questions are already answered in the included Video Episodes, especially for tools like the Colour Grading Collection. So if you haven't watched those yet—start there.

Thanks again for your support!
